Description:

The Munter Trail, part of Clarkson University's trail system, is a wide, level, packed sand trail that follows the Raquette River south to the entrance of the Bayside Cemetery. Along the trail there are a number of picnic spots, as well as boardwalks perfect for fishing or enjoying the view of Fall Island. The trail can be accessed from a number of points, with the two main trailheads located at the rear of the Stewart's Shop on Maple St. or behind the Clarkson University Walker Center behind Hantz Field. The closest public restrooms are located at the Stewart's, a great excuse to pick up a cone of ice cream after your walk.

Directions:

Heading east into Potsdam on Route 11, bear right onto Maple Street and take a right onto Clarkson Ave (County Rd. 59). Parking is available at the Clarkson University Walker Center behind Hantz Field or at A. George Davis Park on Riverside Drive. Trail access is located at the far end of the Walker Center parking lot, closest to the river. The Munter Trail is also accessible from behind the Stewart's Shop located on Maple Ave. Coordinates for the Walker Center parking lot are: 44° 39' 57.2328" N, 74° 59' 28.2624" W.
