

Wolf Lake State Forest Trails

Edwards, NY

LEGEND

--- Road

--- Yellow

--- Blue

--- Red

P Parking

 Trail Head

 Lean-to

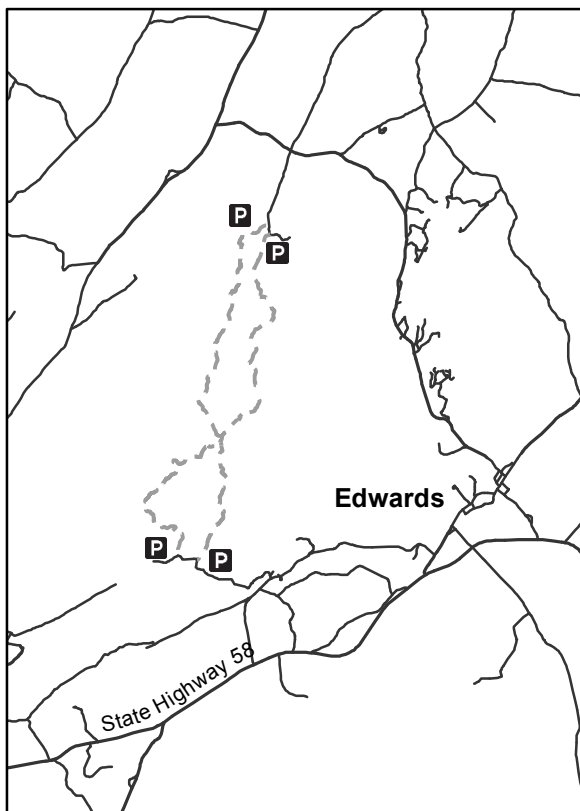

0 0.5 1 2 Miles

0 0.5 1 2 Kilometers

Nature
UpNorth

Data Sources:
Cornell University Geospatial Information Repository
National Hydrography Database

Wolf Lake State Forest Trails, Edwards, NY

Distance: 3.2 miles Difficulty: Easy Dogs Allowed: Yes

Description:

The Wolf Lake State Forest trail system travels through a forested landscape offering great views of the fall foliage and passes by three lakes: Wolf Lake, Moon Lake, and Huckleberry Lake. Many of the trails cross beaver marshes and there is a very large beaver hut on a small pond half way between the southeast Talcville Road entrance and the junction at Moon Lake (blue trail markers). Lean-tos are located on the west side of the Sam Day Road to Moon Lake trail "Beaver Ponds Trail" (red markers) approximately 1.5 miles from the northwest entrance, on the northwest shore of Wolf Lake along the Sam Day Road to Wolf Lake Trail (yellow markers), on the southern shore of Moon Lake and the eastern shore of Huckleberry Lake along the Talcville Road to Moon Lake Trail (yellow markers). Wolf Lake and Huckleberry Lake are well known for their great bass fishing and Wolf Lake is home to many great camping sites.

Directions:

Northern Trailheads – Heading southwest on US 11 from Canton, turn left just before Dekalb Junction onto County Rd 19/ Country Rd 33 for 6.5 miles, make a left onto County Rd 19/ County Rd 72 for 1 mile. Take the first right onto Sam Day Rd. The northwest entrance (44° 22' 07.6" N 75° 18' 38.7" W) will be located in approximately 1.0 mile on the right down a short access road and the northeast entrance will be shortly after the access road entrance on the right.

Southern Trailheads – Heading southwest on US 11 from Canton, turn left onto NY 58 S/ William St in Gouverneur for 10 miles. Take a left onto Talcville Rd. and continue on for 1.2 miles before making a left onto Ames Rd for 1.2 miles. The southeast entrance (44° 18' 44.4" N 75° 19' 25.4" W) is on the right in 1.2 miles and the southwest entrance will be at the second parking area located at the dead end sign.